Yuri is a female Terrorist character in Counter-Strike Online 2. Born in the mid-90s in Asia, Yuri is an expert on everything related to explosives. She participated in the Islamic separation wars, and is known to have died during experiments with new explosives. But even after these rumors, she disappeared and developed new explosives and has been sighted during the bombing of the Rex Research Institute. Favorite Weapon Release Date South Korea: December 24, 2013. China: 22 April 2015. Taiwan/Hong Kong: 18 February 2016. Shine! Shine! (Die! Die!) Itatatata... Chotto, taskete! (Aw, it hurts! Help me, please!) Trivia In Counter-Strike Online, Yuri is paired with Criss. However, the football version was paired with Choi Ji Yoon in the Soccer Woman Set. This is the first character to have its own unique radio voice. Choi Ji Yoon shares this move as well. In china version her name is Instead Anna. She has been rebuilt due to demands from Counter-Strike Online 2 Korean players about her face. Now her face is similar from the Counter-Strike Online version, and again she no longer wears shorts. Same as in Counter-Strike Online, Yuri has a limited edition counterpart in Counter-Strike Online 2. She, along with Choi Ji Yoon, are the first cash point characters sold in Counter-Strike Online 2. She also appears as a character skin in Maple Story 2, another Nexon's game. Interestingly, the Taiwan/Hong Kong version has her voice by Yuka Iguchi. In addition, she gives players an additional 25% EXP and game points. In Japanese version, she is the voice of Sumire Uesaka. It is based on Counter-Strike and was developed Nexon with supervision from license holder Valve. It uses a micropayment model managed by a custom version of Steam. [1] Overview Game includes a variety of additions across the International Counter-Strike, such as the introduction of female characters, numerous new weapons and skins for previous weapons. Most of the weapons are locked by default, so virtual cash or in-game points are important for buying them. Most special weapons, skins, power-ups, etc. can be purchased with cash points. A variety of other special items can also be purchased with in-game points as well. Counter-

Strike Online itself is free to play, but some weapons are purchased using points purchased with real money. These weapons usually expire after a certain period of time but sometimes can be purchased permanently during a promotion. Some weapons and items can be purchased with points won by getting kills, completing targets, etc. Counter-Strike Online modes include classic Counter-Strike modes and added more. They are categorized as sex: Classic, Deathmatches, Zombie Infection, Scenarios, Fun and others. Classic: Round-based match. The locations available are Bomb Desarming, Hostage Rescue, Murder and Basic. Deathmatches: Players will respawn immediately after death. The modes available are Deathmatch, Team Deathmatch and Gun Deathmatch. Zombie Infection: People must survive incoming zombie attacks. The modes available are Zombie 1: Original, Zombie 2: Mutant, Zombie 3: Hero and Zombie 4: Darkness. Scenarios: A group of 10 players must survive and anhow to antagonise computer-controlled enemies to complete specific objectives. Some maps must defeat a boss. Available modes include Zombie Scenario and Human Scenario. Fun: Spin-off modes. Modes available are Hidden, Bazooka Battle, Soccer, Challenge and Item Battle. PvPvE: Player vs Player vs. Environment modes that are Zombie Union, Metal Arena, Battle Rush, Zombie Shelter and Beast. Tournaments Counter-Strike Online is one of the largest e-sports, with various annual tournaments taking place all over the world. The 2012 World Cyber Games Grand Finals in Kunshan hosted a Counter-Strike Online tournament, where teams from China, Taiwan, Malaysia and South Korea competed. [2] The TYLOO team from China won the tournament. SequelS On April 5, 2012, Nexon and Valve announced a partnership to develop Counter-Strike Online 2, which is based on an improved Source engine, and offered improved graphics, powerful impact physics, and more new features. [3] It has been confirmed that Counter-Strike Online 2 uses the same Source version as Counter-Strike: Source. However, it is not a copy of CS:S because all the features of games such as models, maps and sounds are completely rebuilt by Nexon in South Korea. It was aimed at Asia's gambling market. The game uses the free-to-play and micropayment business model, similar to its predecessor. [3] It ran a closed beta test on November 16, 2011 and an open beta test in June 2013. After a period of beta testing, it was released in December 2013 on the Asian markets,[4] but it was closed on April 26, 2018. Maps in this game are downloaded from Counter-Strike: Source. Some are heavily modified in terms of graphics, such as Dust II, Inferno, and Italy. The game also adds its own exclusive maps. The weapons are taken from Counter-Strike: Source as well as adding new weapons. The weapon models are heavily modified and reanimated. They are divided into pistols, shotguns, submachine guns, assault rifles, sniper rifles and machine guns. Some weapons can be obtained for free while the others can be obtained for points and achievements. Some weapons need the player to collect the given dead points to unlock them. Spin-off Counter-Strike Nexon: Zombies was released on Steam on October 7, 2014. [5] This is the first adaptation of Counter-Strike Online to be published through Valve's Steam content delivery system. [6] Counter-Strike Nexon: Zombies was renamed Counter-Strike Nexon: Studio 2019. Counter-Strike Online was discontinued in Singapore/Malaysia (ENGLISH) six months later.
